Business: The group's principal activities are to develop software intended to keep children safe while online and provide turnkey solutions for both local communities and media companies. It's more expanded purpose will be to seek out emerging capabilities, products and services that exhibit great promise of improving family safety and well being. The company is initially focusing its marketing efforts on its s.p.i.k.e. Software product. Spike software/browser reflects the searchhelp philosophy in helping parents and families deal with the increasingly complex and threatening aspects of child Internet usage. Spike remote sentry addresses the same child computer usage issues and reflects the reality that families face of needing to monitor children when the parent is away from home.
